ALFALFA FOR FALL TRADE

New crop seed from the early-producing districts may not be available for the early Fall trade because of too much rain.

Suggest you anticipate your requirements and order now while we have a good selection. To save delay, always name substitute origin should we be out of your first choice.

We recommend, as an excellent origin at a reasonable price Colorado Alfalfa. At a lower price, see the New Mexico, hardy, from high altitude and old-established fields.

Will again have Argentine Alfalfa; ready to book orders now for late August delivery.
